

Another Success Story

January, 2007

Hi Daisy,

Thank you seems so inadequate to say to you. I can't begin to say how much I appreciate your constant advice, guidance, coaching and most importantly just being there. You never wavered in your professional support and you remained positive even when I was ready to give up or felt that tinge of negative emotion. You always encouraged me to look beyond my present and prepare for the bright road ahead.

When you mentioned to me to start writing things down, I didn't get it at first until you explained your thinking behind it. I realized that it really was a way to motivate myself and reinforce positively that I can achieve if I persevere. Never giving up hope and always making the most out of any situation. Our thoughts breed life. With that you need not say anything else, because that underscored everything you have ever said, written or believed.

You are a good person and the ideal person for the field you so passionately work in.

Warmest Regards,

Hyacinth C.
Business Development Specialist

"I've learned that people will forget what you said, people will forget what you did, but people will never forget how you made them feel."

~Maya Angelou